Robbie Church

Head Coach

22nd Season

Pfeiffer, '80

Since being named the head coach of the Duke women's soccer program on July 9, 2001, Robbie Church has built the Blue Devils into a national powerhouse, making three NCAA College Cup appearances and capturing a pair of ACC regular season championships over his 21 seasons at the helm. Over his 36-year career, which covers both the men's and women's game, Church has amassed a 455-249-74 (.632) record, while going 346-180-69 (.638) in 27 years as a women's head coach.

The 2011 and 2017 ACC Coach of the Year concluded his 21st season in Durham in 2021 with a 272-135-60 (.647) record and has won 105 matches over the last seven seasons, guiding the Blue Devils to NCAA College Cup appearances in two of the seven years. Church's unparalleled success at Duke over the last 21 years has included 19 NCAA Championship appearances, advancing 13 times to the Round of 16 and 10 times to the Quarterfinals, while reaching the College Cup on three occasions -- 2011, 2015 and 2017.

Church led the Blue Devils to their third No. 1 seed in the NCAA Championship in 2021, which resulted in the program's eighth quarterfinal appearance since 2011. Only Florida State (nine) has appeared in the final eight more times in that span. Duke concluded the season with a 16-4-1 record, tied for the fifth-most wins in program history, while accumulating seven victories over ranked opponents. The Blue Devils battled a nationally competitive schedule, with non-conference wins over No. 13 Arkansas, No. 19 Washington and No. 10 Stanford. In ACC play, Duke earned its first win over rival North Carolina since 2015, defeating the No. 2-ranked Tar Heels 1-0 on the road, before later topping No. 1 Florida State at Koskinen Stadium by the same score. Duke finished third in the ACC with a 7-2-1 mark, signifying the 10th time under Church that the Blue Devils finished in the top five of the conference standings.

During the 2021 campaign, he helped Michelle Cooper become the fourth ACC Freshman of the Year in program history and the first since 2012. Graduate student Tess Boade and junior Ruthie Jones were each tapped to the All-ACC First Team, alongside Cooper, for the first time in their career.

In an unprecedented 2020-21 season that will be remembered for teams navigating the COVID-19 pandemic, Church guided Duke to a 12-5-3 record that featured competitive spring matches for the first time in program history. The Blue Devils went 4-2-2 in conference play in the fall, with two wins over a top-five Clemson team. Duke advanced to the semifinals of the conference tournament in November, and three student-athletes -- Sophie Jones (First Team), Delaney Graham (Third) and Taylor Mitchell (Third) -- earned All-ACC honors. After an elongated winter break, the Blue Devils returned to action in early March, and went on to win five of eight games in the spring campaign, including two one-goal victories in the NCAA Championship for yet another spot in the quarterfinal round.

Sophie Jones ended the 2020-21 season with a number of individual accolades, including United Soccer Coaches All-America Third Team, TopDrawerSoccer.com Best XI Second Team and All-Atlantic Region First Team honors. After the opening game of the season at Wake Forest in September, Church tapped Ruthie Jones as the starting goalkeeper, and the sophomore from Charlotte, N.C., went on to record 12 clean sheets and a .800 save percentage.

The 2019 season saw the team post a 9-4-7 record, earning a spot in the NCAA Championship for the fifth straight year. Duke tallied a program record-tying seven ties across the season, including four scoreless draws, which tied for seventh-most in NCAA single-season history.

In 2018, the Blue Devils accumulated 16 wins, with eight coming in ACC play to finish second in the league, giving Duke a top-three finish for the third consecutive season. The 25 wins Church accumulated in ACC play from 2016-18 mark the best three-year stretch in conference play in program history.

After the solid showing in one of the toughest leagues in the nation, the Blue Devils advanced to the NCAA Round of 16 for the eighth-straight time. Individually, Kayla McCoy capped her career with a United Soccer Coaches First Team All-America accolade to go along with a United Soccer Coaches First Team Scholar All-America spot. The Lincolnwood, Ill., native also was named a CoSIDA third-team Academic All-American and landed on TopDrawerSoccer Best XI Third Team. Church's squad also reeled in five All-ACC honors, with McCoy leading the way with first team laurels for the second-straight season, becoming the 11th player in DWS history to receive the honor multiple times in her career. Fellow senior Taylor Racioppi, who was tabbed a United Soccer Coaches Third Team Scholar All-American, and junior Ella Stevens were named All-ACC Second Team, while Delaney Graham and Sydney Simmons were tabbed to the ACC All-Freshman Team. Graham was also added to TopDrawerSoccer's Freshman Best XI Second Team.

Headlining Church's 18th season was the senior class of McCoy, Racioppi, Chelsea Burns and Kat McDonald. Under Church's guidance, the group of four finished their careers with 68 victories, establishing them as the winningest class in program history. During that four-year stretch, the squad reached a pair of NCAA College Cups, including a national runner-up finish in 2015, while also making an appearance in the NCAA Round of 16 (2018) and Quarterfinals (2016).

Church orchestrated one of the greatest seasons in school history a year prior in 2017, highlighted by 13 broken school records and the program's fourth NCAA College Cup appearance.

The Blue Devils amassed a program-record 23 victories in 2017 and went 10-0-0 in conference play en route to claiming the ACC regular season championship for the third time in history.

Duke's rewriting of the record book did not stop there, as it also set the school record for shutouts (18), home wins (15), ACC wins (10), ranked victories (9) ACC shutouts (8) and ACC goal differential (+20). Church led Duke to its 23rd NCAA Championship appearance and 14th in the last 15 seasons, while also being awarded with the second No. 1 seed in school history, with the other coming in 2011.

Individually, the Blue Devils produced a school record three United Soccer Coaches All-Americans, as well as a school-best and league-high nine All-ACC stars. Those included ACC Offensive Player of the Year/First Team All-American (Imani Dorsey), Midfielder of the Year/First Team All-American (Rebecca Quinn) and Defender of the Year/Third Team All-American (Schuyler DeBree).

The standout season also brought a number of honors for Church, who reeled in the second ACC Coach of the Year honor of his career, making him the sixth coach in conference history to earn the award multiple times. Church and his assistants Erwin van Bennekom, Carla Overbeck and Lane Davis earned United Soccer Coaches National Staff of the Year honors for the first time in program history as well.

Domination for the Blue Devils extended beyond the pitch as well, as they recorded a nation-leading four United Soccer Coaches Scholar All-Americans, led by Dorsey, who was named Duke women's soccer's first National Scholar-Athlete of the Year. The season was capped with a school record six selections in the 2018 NWSL College Draft, which ties the NWSL record. Quinn, selected third by Washington, became the highest Blue Devil selected in program history. Quinn and Dorsey, who was taken with the fifth overall pick by Sky Blue FC, gave the Blue Devils a pair of top five picks for the first time in DWS history.

Even though Church dealt with key injuries to three starters during the 2016 campaign, the Blue Devils advanced to the NCAA Quarterfinals before falling to top-seeded West Virginia on the road, 1-0.

Returning nine starters in 2015 and welcoming in one of the top recruiting classes in the nation, Church could sense it could be a special season. After knocking off fifth-ranked North Carolina in ACC action, Duke went on a run winning six out of the final 10 matches before dropping a 1-0 decision to Penn State in the national championship. Duke totaled a 14-6-5 overall and 4-3-3 league mark and lead the ACC in shutouts with 14.

After dealing with the loss of a key senior class and many newcomers on the roster, the Blue Devils struggled in 2014 posting an 8-9-1 overall record and missing the NCAA Championship for the first time since the 2002 campaign. But many of those student-athletes return after gaining great experiences and are motivated to excel in 2015.

Dealing with season-ending knee injuries to starters Gilda Doria and Cassie Pecht, the Blue Devils posted a 9-9-6 overall record in 2013, but played their best soccer at the end. Duke advanced to the Elite Eight for a school-record third straight year, before falling to top-seeded Virginia Tech.

In 2012, Duke notched a 15-6-2 overall record and advanced to the NCAA Elite Eight. The Blue Devils registered a school-record 207 points, school-record 77 assists and were only two goals away from matching the single-season mark of 67.

The Blue Devils totaled one of the best seasons in Duke history in 2011 with a then school-record 22 victories along with an ACC regular season title (8-1 record), a then school-record 16 shutouts and a trip to the NCAA College Cup. Duke registered a 4-1 win over Wake Forest in the semifinals of the NCAA College Cup before falling 1-0 to Stanford in the national championship match. For his efforts, Church was named the Soccer America National Coach of the Year and ACC Coach of the Year.

In 2010, Duke advanced to the NCAA Championship Round of 16, following upset victories against California and fifth-ranked Florida. The Blue Devils featured a very young lineup that included its top three scorers being freshmen -- Mollie Pathman, Laura Weinberg and Kaitlyn Kerr. Duke turned in an 11-8-4 overall mark.

Duke registered an 8-9-4 record during the 2009 campaign and advanced to the NCAA Championship First Round, while dealing with numerous injuries all season long. Duke started five freshmen to go along with senior standouts Elisabeth Redmond and KayAnne Gummersall. The two All-ACC selections combined for 14 goals and 16 assists on the year to lead the Blue Devils.

In 2008, Duke advanced to the NCAA Championship Quarterfinals for the second straight year, while totaling a 15-6-3 overall ledger. Duke scored 54 goals and registered a school record-tying 13 shutouts on the season. In the ACC, Duke finished fifth with a 4-3-3 record.

Duke's tandem of Elisabeth Redmond and KayAnne Gummersall teamed together to notch 27 goals, which was the most in school history for two players in a single season.

In 2007, Duke garnered a 10-6-7 overall and 3-3-4 ACC records. The Blue Devils knocked off 21st-ranked South Carolina, 13th-ranked Georgia and Indiana on the road to advance to the NCAA Championship quarterfinals before falling to 12th-ranked Notre Dame, 3-2, in South Bend, Ind.

For the second straight season in 2007, Duke registered eight one-goal contests and a total of seven ties, but put it all together when it counted in the NCAA Championship. The Blue Devils were ranked as high as 10th nationally during the season. Junior Lorraine Quinn garnered All-America accolades and then went on to help the United States U-23 National Team claim the Nordic Cup title over the summer.

The 2006 season was one of close matches as well with the Blue Devils registering eight one-goal games and four ties. One of the major highlights was knocking off third-ranked Florida State on senior day with a 3-1 victory and senior Rebecca Moros earning All-America accolades.

In 2005, the Blue Devils were ranked as high as sixth in the nation and knocked off top-ranked North Carolina on its home field with a 2-1 victory in Chapel Hill. The win was only the second in school history over the Tar Heels. Senior defender Carolyn Ford went on to be selected as the ACC Defensive Player of the Year as Duke registered 11 shutouts.

In 2004, the Blue Devils collected a 15-8 overall and 5-4 ACC mark. Church led Duke to an NCAA Championship Round of 16 appearance and the five league victories was the most since 1997. For his efforts, Church was named NSCAA/adidas South Region Coach of the Year.

Church, who replaced former head coach Bill Hemen in 2001, is only the second coach in Duke's 35-year history. Over the past numerous years, Church has brought in recruiting classes rated in the top 25 by Soccerbuzz.com and TopDrawerSoccer.com - third in 2006, seventh in 2002, eighth in 2003 and 2007, 20th in 2004 and 22nd in 2008. The 2010, 2011, 2012 and 2013 classes were listed as one of the top in the nation as well, including the No. 2 class in 2014, No. 6 class in 2015, No. 4 in 2016 and No. 5 in 2017 by TopDrawerSoccer.com.

Church earned his 100th career victory as a women's head coach against Florida International on Sept. 20, 2002, and collected his 200th career victory (men and women) on Sept. 26, 2003, against Davidson. With a 2-1 win over California in the 2010 NCAA Championship, Church posted his 200th win as a women's head coach.

In 2003, he guided the Blue Devils to 14 victories, which equaled the most wins for Duke since 1994, and to the second round of the NCAA Championship. Church did all of this with only three seniors, as 16 of 22 letterwinners were underclassmen. The Blue Devils finished with a 4-3 record in the ACC, which tied for third place, and were ranked as high as sixth nationally.

Before arriving at Duke, Church compiled a 21-19-1 record in two seasons as head coach at Vanderbilt. He led the Commodores to the Southeastern Conference (SEC) Tournament semifinals in each of his two seasons.

In 1994, Church became the first head coach at UNC Charlotte, a position he held until 1998. While at Charlotte, he guided the 49ers to a 66-30-10 mark in five seasons, including the school's first NCAA Championship bid in 1998 and three Conference USA titles.

Church coached men's college teams at Lynn University (1990), East Carolina (1982-84) and Belmont Abbey (1985-89), where he also served as associate athletic director.

Church began his career as a head coach at East Carolina from 1982-84. In 1984, he was a men's assistant coach at Duke under John Rennie. After a one-year stint with the Blue Devils, Church accepted the head coach and associate athletic director position at Belmont Abbey.

Over the next five years, he led the Crusaders to a 69-35-1 record, while graduating 90 percent of his players. Included in that stretch were two Carolinas Conference Championships and an NAIA National Tournament appearance in 1989.

Church moved on to the College of Boca Raton, now Lynn University, in 1990, leading the men's team to a 17-4-2 mark. In one season, he guided Boca Raton to the District 25 Championship and the NAIA national finals.

Throughout his 36 years as a college head coach, Church has amassed a record of 455-249-74. He was recognized as the Carolinas Conference and NAIA Coach of the Year in 1989, the NSCAA/adidas South Region Coach of the Year in 2004, the Conference USA Coach of the Year in 1997, the Soccer America National Coach of the Year in 2011, the Southeast Region Coach of the Year in 2011 and the ACC Coach of the Year in 2011. Following the 2019 season, Church was inducted into the North Carolina Soccer Hall of Fame.

In addition, Church was the NAIA South Region Coach of the Year in 1988 and 1989. He was also tabbed the NAIA District 26 Coach of the Year in 1988 and NAIA District 25 Coach of the Year in 1990.

In 1991, Church left the college ranks to become the head men's and women's soccer coach at Charlotte Country Day School. In three seasons at the helm of the men's program, Church compiled a 40-22-9 record, including a state finals appearance in 1993. The women's program was equally successful during his two seasons as head coach, tallying a 24-7-3 mark and winning the 1992 state championship.

A four-year starter at Pfeiffer College, Church was his team's leading scorer and MVP as a senior. He was selected NAIA All-South Region, was an All-Conference performer, and was inducted into the school's Sports Hall of Fame in 1998. He graduated from Pfeiffer with a bachelor of arts degree in health and physical education in 1981. Church went on to earn his master's degree in health and physical education from the University of South Carolina in 1985.

Church and his wife, the former Linda Atkins, have two children, Ashley and Kyle. Ashley is a 2008 graduate of UNC Wilmington and was a four-year letterwinner on the women's soccer team, Kyle is a 2010 graduate of Charlotte and was a four-year letterwinner on the men's basketball squad. The Church family resides in Durham.

Kieran Hall

Associate Head Coach

4th Season

Fort Lewis College, '08

One of the top young minds in the game, Kieran Hall joined the Duke women's soccer program as an assistant coach in 2019, before being elevated to associate head coach in June of 2020.

Hall enters his fourth season with the Blue Devil women's soccer program, looking to build on an impressive first three years. Duke made its 25th NCAA Tournament appearance in Hall's first campaign, marking the program's fifth-straight showing in the Big Dance. In his increased role in 2020-21, Hall helped the Blue Devils navigate a season affected by the COVID-19 pandemic and was a key factor in Duke advancing to the NCAA Quarterfinals.

The Blue Devils recorded 12 clean sheets in 2020-21 with eight coming as shutout victories -- both ranked second in the ACC. Duke held a number of ranked opponents to zero goals through 90 minutes or more, including a 1-0 win over No. 3 Clemson, a 0-0 draw versus No. 14 Vanderbilt and a 0-0, penalty kick loss to top-seeded Florida State in the NCAA Quarterfinals.

The Blue Devils amassed nine shutouts in Hall's first season, with four of those coming against top 25 opponents and three against top 15 foes. Duke's nine wins came by an average margin of three goals, as the team scored four or more goals on five occasions.

In his short time with the Duke women's program, Hall has aided in the development of Sophie Jones, who earned All-ACC honors in her freshman (2019), sophomore (2020) and junior (2021) campaigns, while totaling an All-American season in 2020-21. He has also worked with All-ACC performers Delaney Graham and Taylor Mitchell, as well as United Soccer Coaches All-Atlantic Region honoree Caitlin Cosme.

Hall joined the DWS program after spending three seasons on the Duke men's soccer staff. In his three years, Hall helped Duke tally a 31-19-7 record, including a 24-11-5 showing in over his last two seasons. Hall was an instrumental part in helping the Blue Devils earn a pair of NCAA Tournament appearances, as the program captured the No. 6 national seed in 2017-18 and reach the Round of 16 in both showings. The No. 6 seed marked the first time the men's soccer program had earned a national seed since the 2009 season.

In Hall's second season, the Blue Devils reeled off 13 victories, the most since winning 14 in 2009. The six-game improvement from the 2016 campaign matched the best one-year turnaround in program history. Hall helped Duke to 11 victories in its most recent campaign, giving the Blue Devils back-to-back 10-plus win seasons in seven years.

Individually, Hall helped Duke produce a pair of United Soccer Coaches All-Americans and 10 All-ACC selections. Most recently, Hall and the Blue Devils produced five all-conference honorees, the most by the program since producing five in 2000. Headlining the group of five was All-ACC First Team selection Daniele Proch and 2018 ACC Rookie of the Year Issa Rayyan. Proch also earned United Soccer Coaches Scholar All-America and Google Cloud CoSIDA Academic All-America honors.

Prior to joining the Duke men's soccer staff in August 2016, Hall served as an assistant coach and consultant for the Indy Eleven of the NASL and as the Director of Operations at the University of Denver for a season.

While in Indianapolis, the Fort Lewis College product worked with the club in a consulting capacity in preparation for the 2016 NASL season. Before his stint with the Eleven, Hall assisted the Denver Pioneer program with the design and periodization of training schedules and exercises. He also was integral in providing quality scouting reports to the Denver staff and student-athletes and supplied video analysis of the current players and potential recruits.

Hall, prior to moving to Denver, was an assistant coordinator and scout for Levante UD of La Liga in Spain. He was the assistant coordinator of U13-U16 teams at the Spanish football academy. He also served as an opposition scout for Atlético Levante UD, the club's professional B team, and U13-U16 age groups.

Ahead of his move to Spain, the Great Britain native was an assistant coach for his alma mater Fort Lewis College as well as a youth coach for the Durango United Soccer Association. He was named the 2012 Colorado Youth Soccer Coach of the Year for his efforts with the Durango United.

A four-year starter at Fort Lewis College, Hall helped lead the Skyhawks to the 2005 NCAA Division II National Championship and the 2006 NCAA runner-up. He served as a team captain and was an all-conference and all-region selection during his time at Fort Lewis.

Hall's international experience includes being a starting center midfielder for Great Britain's U-23 team that advanced to the semifinals at the World University Games in Serbia. He also was a member of the team for the event in Thailand in 2007.

After completing his career and earning his bachelor's degree in business administration from Fort Lewis, Hall was drafted and was offered a contract by the Houston Dynamo of Major League Soccer.

Hall holds a Union of European Football (UEFA) "B" license earned a Master's in Football Management from Universidad Europea de Madrid.

Carla Overbeck

Assistant Coach

31st Season

North Carolina, '90

In her collegiate coaching debut, Carla Overbeck made an immediate impact on the Duke University women's soccer program, helping the 1992 Blue Devils advance to the NCAA title game. Over the last 30 years, she has continued her work with the Blue Devils as Duke has advanced to the NCAA Tournament 27 times, including NCAA College Cup appearances in 2011, 2015 and 2017.

Overbeck's work with the Blue Devils helped them capture the 2017 ACC regular season championship, their third such honor in program history. Behind a school record 23 wins and a perfect 10-0-0 record in conference play, Duke secured the honor and then captured a No. 1 seed in the NCAA Tournament for the second time in school history, eventually advancing to its second NCAA in the last three years. For their success, Overbeck and the entire Blue Devil staff were named the United Soccer Coaches National Staff of the Year, becoming the first DWS staff to receive the honor.

A three-time All-America selection at the University of North Carolina, Overbeck was a member of four unbeaten Tar Heel national title squads from 1986-89. North Carolina posted a phenomenal 95-match unbeaten streak (89-0-6) during her career.

Overbeck was a four-time member of the NCAA All-Tournament Team and a two-time All-ACC selection. In addition, she was a member of the 1986 Soccer America All-America

OVERBECK'S CAREER HONORS

- FIFA World Cup Champion (1991, 1999)
- Olympic Gold Medalist (1996)
- Olympic Silver Medalist (2000)
- Goodwill Games Gold Medalist (1998)

- Soccer America Freshman All-America (1986)
- NCAA Tournament Most Valuable Defensive Player (1988)

Freshman Team and was the Most Valuable Defensive Player of the 1988 NCAA Tournament.

Overbeck's playing accomplishments include competing for the United States National Team. Overbeck was an instrumental player for the U.S. in winning the 1991 Women's World Cup in China. She captained the 1995 U.S. World Cup squad that advanced to the semifinals and also served as captain of the 1996 U.S. Olympic Team that won the gold medal.

In 1998, Overbeck competed on the gold-medal-winning Goodwill Games squad. She again captained Team USA to the 1999 World Cup Championship and to a silver medal in the 2000 Olympic Games in Sydney, Australia.

On May 6, 2006, Overbeck was elected to the National Soccer Hall of Fame and was a 2010 North Carolina Sports Hall of Fame inductee. Overbeck, who graduated from North Carolina with a degree in psychology in 1990, attended Richardson High School in Richardson, Texas. She and her husband, Greg, have one son, Jackson and a daughter, Carson Elizabeth.

Lane Davis

Assistant Coach

7th Season

Wichita State, '99

Lane Davis, who joined the Blue Devils May 30, 2016, concluded his sixth season with the Duke women's soccer staff. Davis has more than 20 years of college coaching experience to the Blue Devils. His duties include oversight of all goalkeeper training and data analysis, coordinating video for team and individual use, and opponent scouting.

Over the past two seasons, Davis has been instrumental in the development of goalkeeper Ruthie Jones, who went from playing sparingly in four matches as a freshman to starting 41 in a row over as a sophomore and junior. In 2021, Jones became Duke's first All-ACC goalkeeper since EJ Proctor in 2017, as the Charlotte, N.C., native led the conference in save percentage (.833) and goals against average (0.54) during the regular season. She made 46 saves in her junior campaign, including a season-high seven versus Wake Forest in the ACC Tournament. Jones posted nine complete-game shutouts, tied for first in the ACC, while her 12 goals allowed were tied for the fewest among ACC keepers. From Oct. 10-28, she did not yield a goal for 458 minutes and six seconds of consecutive play, marking the fifth-longest streak in program history.

In 2020-21, Jones took over starting goalkeeper duties in the second match of the season against Virginia and went on to record 12 clean sheets, the second-most in the ACC, while stopping 56 shots and posting a 0.70 goals against average.

Davis oversaw one of the best defensive seasons in Duke women's soccer history in 2017, as the Blue Devils orchestrated one of the greatest seasons in school history, highlighted by 13 broken school records and the program's fourth NCAA College Cup appearance. The Blue Devils amassed a program-record 23 victories in 2017 and went 10-0-0 in conference play en route to claiming the ACC regular season championship for the third time in history. Duke's rewriting of the record book did not stop there, as it also set the school record for shutouts (18), home wins (15), ACC wins (10), ranked victories (9) ACC shutouts (8) and ACC goal differential (+20). Duke advanced to its 23rd NCAA Tournament appearance and 14th in the last 15 seasons, while also being awarded with the second No. 1 seed in school history, with the other coming in 2011. For their success, Davis and the rest of the DWS staff were named the United Soccer Coaches National Staff of the Year, the first time in program history a DWS staff has received the honor.

Davis and senior captain EJ Proctor led the way for a Duke defense that was top 10 nationally in goals against average (0.38) and with a school record 18 shutouts. Davis' leadership also helped Proctor etch her name throughout the DWS record book, as the First Team All-ACC selection finished her career with a school best 35 shutouts, 0.65 GAA and nine shutouts in NCAA Tournament play. The Wilson, N.C. native also owns three of the top four spots in single-season shutouts and GAA, setting the school records in 2017 with 14 clean sheets and a 0.35 average. Proctor also stood out in the classroom as well, earned United Soccer Coaches Second Team Scholar All-America and CoSIDA Academic All-District honors.

In his first season in Durham, Davis helped the Blue Devils produce 11 shutouts. Proctor was Davis' go-to in goal, as she produced 10 of Duke's 11 clean sheets, finishing third in the ACC and 17th nationally. Proctor turned in a .639 goals against average (4th ACC, 22nd NCAA) and a .797 save percentage (6th ACC), helping lead the Blue Devils to an NCAA quarterfinals appearance.

Prior to Duke, Davis spent three years with Saint Joseph's University. During his time Lane has helped develop the Hawks into one of the top backlines in the Atlantic 10. Goalkeepers accumulated 22 shutouts in his three years, including eight in each of the last two seasons. Under his guidance, Davis helped goalkeeper Allison Ebling set the program record for wins in a season (11), while tallying eight shutouts enroute to helping Saint Joseph's to a third-place finish in the A-10 as well as back-to-back conference tournament appearances.

Prior to arriving at Saint Joseph's, Davis served as an assistant at UMBC. In the fall of 2012, he helped goalkeeper Lauren Kadet earn America East All-Conference Second Team honors and defender Amira Walcott garner All-Rookie Team accolades.

Davis also spent three seasons at George Washington (2009-11). During his tenure as an assistant coach with the Colonials, he was responsible for working directly with the goalkeepers while also serving as recruiting coordinator. George Washington had three players selected to Atlantic 10 All-Conference teams during Davis' three seasons, while the Colonials earned the NSCAA Team Academic Award recognition every year.

Davis began his collegiate coaching career as a volunteer assistant at Kansas. Over his three seasons with the Jayhawks, he helped guide the team to a Sweet 16 appearance in the 2003 NCAA Tournament. In 2004, Kansas won its first Big 12 title, made its second-straight NCAA appearance and achieved a No. 6 ranking during the year.

Following Kansas' success in 2004, Davis took over as an assistant at Missouri State. Focusing on goalkeeper and defensive improvement, he helped the Bears' goalkeeper Jackie Jasper to a First Team All-Missouri Valley Conference selection, while defender Kate Hercules was named Defensive Player of the Year in the MVC.

After his successful stint with Missouri State, Davis joined U.C. Riverside as recruiting coordinator and goalkeeper coach for two seasons. While with the Highlanders, he helped goalkeeper Brittany Goetz lead the Big West and set the team's single season record for saves (135) in 2008.

Davis also currently serves as a Talent ID scout for U.S. Soccer, helping identify the best soccer talent in the United States with the potential to play for the country's Youth National Teams. He has served in the capacity since Feb. 2019 and assists at YNT Identification Centers.

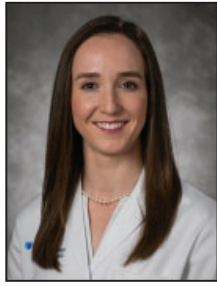

He holds the UEFA B and both the National A and National Goalkeeping License from US Soccer. In the Summer of 2022, he obtained his Talent License from US Soccer.

Prior to coaching, Davis played collegiately at McPherson before suffering a career-ending knee injury as a freshman. He transferred to Wichita State where he earned a bachelor's degree in physical education and a minor in exercise physiology in 1999. Davis would go on to receive his M.Ed in Sports Administration from Kansas in 2002.
